11-15-01 Based on the pleadings, testimony taken at trial, exhibits introduced into evidence and stipulations of the parties, this Court finds as follows.
The four pit bulls that are approximately one and a half years old and that were born at the City of Huntsville Animal Control Shelter, are not lacking any useful purpose due to training and viciousness.
The said four pit bulls are to be adopted in the following order: by Sheila Tack, by Loyce Fisher, and by Katherine Nagel. The fourth pit bull to be adopted is to be adopted by one of those three intervenors. All intervenors are to sign the Humane Society's adoption form (Court Exhibit 1). All other pit bulls herein are declared to be contraband, as found to be lacking any useful purpose due to training or viciousness and are to be humanely euthanized by the City of Huntsville Animal Control Shelter.
All costs are taxed to the named Defendants.
This the 15th day of November, 2001. Joseph W Battle 11-19-01 The order of 11-15-01 herein is amended by adding the following. Of the four dogs to be spared, two came to the Huntsville Animal Control Shelter as puppies. Two were born there as puppies. The order as to the dogs that are not spared is based on default. The named Defendants failed to appear at the call of the trial docket. The Intervenors appeared for the four dogs that are sprayed.
